

STUCK IN SHIP BETTER CONVICTION

The Massachusetts Declared by Her Captain To Be in No Danger of Sinking.

SITS HIGHER IN THE WATER

Was Moved to the Inner Harbor so That Small Boats Might Work Easier.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD.]
BAR HARBOR, Me., Friday.—The investigation into the disaster to the battle ship Massachusetts, which happened on Wednesday, continued to-day. The most important discovery was a small leak at which, admitted about twenty inches of water a day into the compartments. A single pumping a day there removes the water, however, and it is considered not at all serious. The situation to-day, in spite of the finding of the new leaks, is much better than it was yesterday, for the compartments A-97 and A-43, which were full, have been pumped dry.

The compartment, which holds the most water, is the capacity of which is more than a hundred tons. All of the leaks are in this compartment, and no attempt will be made to pump it dry before the ship gets into dry dock. All the leaks from this big compartment to the adjoining ones have been plugged, so that it is expected that the two compartments which were pumped dry will remain so. So far, Captain Eaton says, there has been no water in the main part of the ship.

The two cracks reported yesterday are still the only ones that have been discovered. Captain Eaton's present plans are to remain here long enough to have the divers make a very thorough examination of the hull and to remove about one hundred and fifty tons of coal. The ship has at present 100 tons of coal aboard. The removal of the 150 tons of ammunition has already raised the bow of the battle ship six inches higher than her normal position, while the stern is just a trifle lower.

Captain Eaton said to-night: "We are anchored here in the water in more quiet. We could stand the rough weather all right, but it makes things pretty bad for the small boats from which the men are working alongside. We are in a much better way to-day."

The ship was now anchored in thirty fathoms of water, and that is sufficient evidence to back up the captain's statement that the ship is in no danger of sinking. The light-house tender from Egg Rock was in the village to-day and he said the fog on Wednesday was the thickest he had ever seen in the harbor. It could not be seen from the light-house.

Naval Constructor Gilmore, from Bath, Me., arrived here today to remain with the Massachusetts and to assist in making the temporary repairs. The Indiana is still here, and the Massachusetts is expected to be kept here until the Massachusetts is ready to sail for the navy yard.

THE MASSACHUSETTS WILL BE MISSED

Battle Ship's Absence from Portland Manoeuvres Will Weaken Attacking Force.

HERALD BUREAU.
NO. 10 FIFTEENTH STREET, N. Y.

Authorization was today telegraphed to the commandant of the Boston Navy Yard to charter a wrecking tug and send her to the assistance of the disabled battle ship Massachusetts at Bar Harbor, equipped with wrecking pumps and carrying a competent crew of mechanics.

Captain Emory, commanding the Indiana, will be advised that in view of the serious damage to the Massachusetts the ship cannot attend the grand naval review of Oyster Bay on Monday.

Several despatches to-day from the Navy Department to-day from Captain Emory, but none of them gives any intimation as to the time limit for reaching the Massachusetts sufficiently to enable her to get to New York under her own steam.

The dispatching here today to the Massachusetts will weaken the navy's force in the attack on Portland, beginning August 22, as the Massachusetts is unable to fill the place of the battle ship.

Captain Cowles, acting chief of the Bureau of Navigation, yesterday issued a following bulletin about the condition of the Massachusetts:

"The latest report from the Massachusetts states that undoubtedly temporary repairs can be made which will enable her to safely proceed to a navy yard."

WRIT FOR DR. SINCLAIR

He Must Bring His Son Huge Before Judge Freedman This Morning.

Dr. Daniel A. Sinclair last evening opened the doors of his guarded home, at No. 229 East Sixty-second street, to an attorney of the city who served upon him a writ of habeas corpus directing him to bring his young son, Hugh, before Judge Freedman. The writ was made returnable at half-past ten o'clock this morning.

In this way the question as to which of the child's parents should have custody will be officially determined. Mrs. Sinclair took the boy away with her to Pine Hill, in the Catskills, and the physician, following her, secured him and carried him back to the family home in East Sixty-second street. The home of the physician was last night guarded by two stalwart young men, who said that the doctor wished to announce that he had made no resistance to the power of the law and that he would certainly bring the boy to court at the time appointed.

REQUISITION FOR KIDNAPPER.

Cartoonist, Who Stole His Own Child, Resists Extradition Into Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Friday.—Governor Yates has issued a requisition on the Governor of Pennsylvania for the extradition of Robert Sidney Smith, now under arrest in Pittsburgh and wanted in Bloomington on a charge of kidnapping.

Smith is a newspaper writer and cartoonist. Several days ago he visited his home in Bloomington and kidnapped his little child, Agnes Smith, who was given to his parents by the court. Smith resisted extradition and the warrant was issued to issue after a hearing before the Governor.

REQUISITION MAY PLACE GOVERNOR PENNSYLVANIA IN A DILEMMA.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD.]
POTTSVILLE, Pa., Friday.—Governor Yates, of Illinois, by issuing a requisition on the Governor of Pennsylvania for the extradition of R. S. Smith, who is under arrest at Pittsburgh for kidnapping, is believed to have placed Governor Pennington in a dilemma. Smith kidnapped his own child. Recently Pennington refused to issue extradition papers on the Governor of New Jersey for Mrs. John Garrett, who kidnapped her four children from a Pottsville Children's Home and escaped to Madison, N. J. The Governor held that a mother cannot be convicted of kidnapping her own child.

Fines New York Lawyer.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD.]
EAST MORRIS, N. Y., Friday.—Thomas B. Adams, a lawyer, of No. 27 Broadway, New York, was arraigned before Judge Howell for a violation of the anti-solicitation law. He was fined $100 and costs.

LIFE SENTENCES FOR TWO FELONISTS

Jeff and White Found Guilty of the Murder of Judge Marcum in Kentucky.

WITNESSES BREATHE EASIER

Old Feud Cost Twenty-Seven Lives and Had Covered a Period of More Than Fifty Years.

CENTELANA, Ky., Friday.—Curtis Jeff and Thomas White, charged with the assassination of James B. Marcum, at Jackson, Ky., were found guilty this morning and the jury fixed the punishment of each at life imprisonment.

The case has been on trial almost three weeks. At the first trial, at Jackson, the jury disagreed, and it is believed that the verdict to-day was a compromise with a juror opposed to capital punishment. The friends of Captain B. J. Ewen and other witnesses for the Commonwealth, who have suffered greatly and were living in fear of their lives, are greatly relieved. There have been twenty-seven lives lost within the last two years in the Hargis-Cockrill feud in Breathitt county and this is the first conviction.

How a Political Fight Revived an Old and Deadly Feud.

Judge J. B. Marcum was shot and killed on the morning of May 4 last as he was entering the Breathitt County Court House. Although siding with the Cockrills in their feud with the Hargis faction, his death was the immediate result of the reopening of contested election cases.

He was the attorney for Charles Terry, who was elected County Judge over Hargis. The latter faction took the offices and Terry, through Marcum, his lawyer, was fighting for his rights. Cockrill was a republican, but his partner, O. H. Pollard, was a democrat and friend of the Hargis faction.

At the time of the shooting Sheriff "Ed" Callahan, a brother-in-law of Judge Hargis, was sitting in the latter's store, across the street from the Court House, and instituted a cursory search for the assassin. Both he and Judge Hargis denied repeatedly that they had any knowledge of the assassination.

Breathitt county has never experienced a longer or more deadly feud than that of the Hargis and Cockrill families, which began in 1853 with the marriage of Miss Virginia Bolton, of Virginia, to William Sewall, of Jackson, Ky.

At the time of this marriage was Sarah A. Sewall, the mother of Charles or Curtis Jeff, a Hargis factionist. Thomas J. Sewall shot "Buck" Combs, a nephew of John Cockrill, head of the family of that name. Fights and legal results between the factions were numerous in the following years.

James Marcum, who was on the Cockrill side, filed a protest contesting the election of Judge Hargis and Sheriff "Ed" Callahan, his brother-in-law.

In the frequent disputes which followed there was much shooting. John Cockrill was among the victims of the Hargis adherents. He was killed, it is said, by Curtis Jeff, who was also charged with being the murderer of Judge Marcum, who was shot by John Cockrill.

The separate ballots on Jeff's case stood eleven for hanging and one for life sentence, and this vote was not changed in subsequent votes. Jasper King, a former Deputy Sheriff, voted alone until a compromise was reached for life sentences for both. Charges have been preferred against King for attempting to hang the jury.

DYNAMITE IN JETT'S CELL

Belief That Convicted Murderer Had Intended to Blow Up Prison.

WINCHESTER, Ky., Friday.—The discovery of two sticks of dynamite in the cell in the Clark county jail formerly occupied by Curtis Jeff, the convicted assassin of J. B. Marcum, of Breathitt county, has given rise to a story of a plot to release Jeff during the time he was confined here awaiting trial. The dynamite was found in a water pipe by a negro, who is the only prisoner who has occupied the cell since Jeff was removed. The quantity of the explosive was sufficient to have wrecked the jail.

AUTOMOBILE HITS CAB

Two Occupants Thrown Out and the Machine Wrecked in Fifth Avenue Collision.

To avoid a vehicle coming in the opposite direction, an automobile, in which John Lufrio, of No. 38 Amsterdam avenue, and Joseph Closson, of No. 37 East Twenty-fifth street, were riding, was turned suddenly to the left yesterday afternoon in Fifth avenue, near Thirty-ninth street, and came into collision with a cab.

Both men were thrown out, and the former was badly cut about the head. He was attended at Roosevelt Hospital.

After plunging into the cab driven by John Ford, of No. 48 Pearl street, the automobile rolled into the curbstone, and its front wheels were broken. Lufrio is superintendent of an automobile depot in West Sixty-sixth street.

TROUBLE IN PURE FOOD RULE.

Customs Officials Fear Congestion of Cargoes While Analysis Are Being Made.

HERALD BUREAU.
NO. 10 FIFTEENTH STREET, N. Y.

NEVADA STRANAHAN, Collector of Customs in New York, had a long conference with Mr. Armstrong, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, to-day concerning the congestion of cargoes in New York which it is feared the enforcement of the new Pure Food law will bring about.

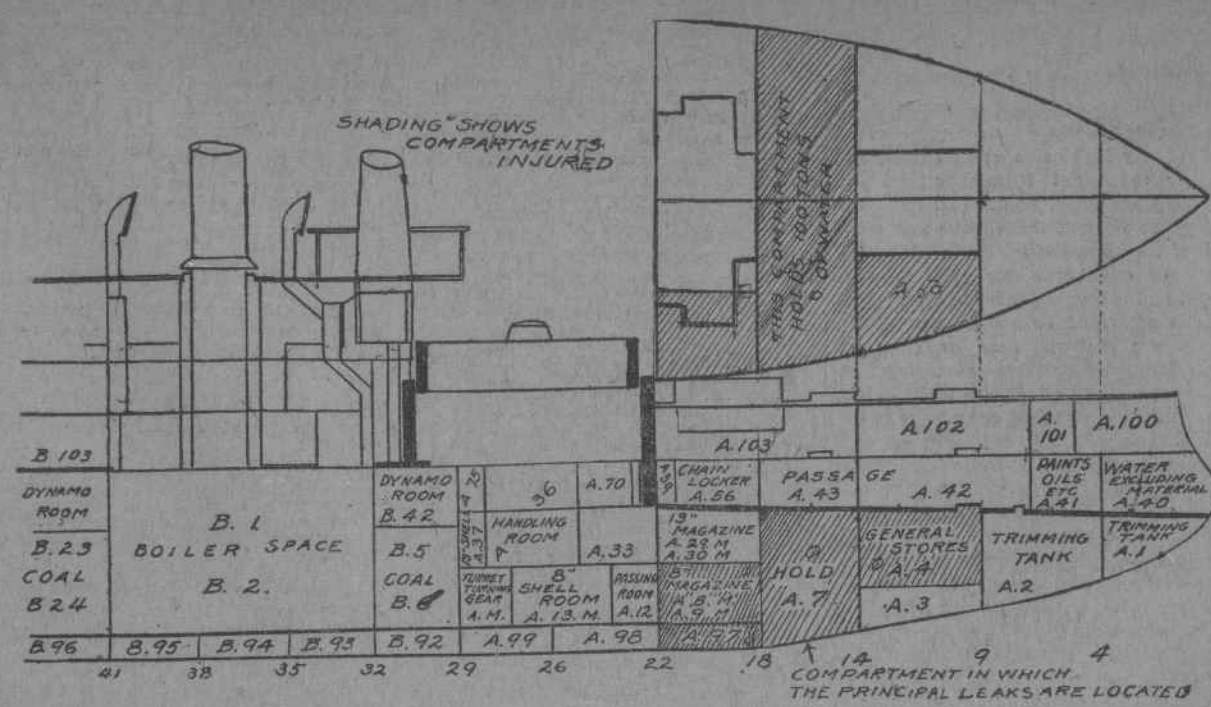

The Department of Agriculture has already requested that twenty cargoes of food products now on their way to this country be held up until samples can be analyzed to discover whether the imports are adulterated or mislabeled. Many of the cargoes are coming to New York.

There is fear that the delay caused by the inspection will cause much confusion in custom houses, as the Department of Agriculture may require many samples that it is able to analyze speedily.

OVERSTUDY KILLS A BOY.

Brain Fever Follows Young Grunwald's Efforts to Earn Living and Study Law at Same Time.

As a result of brain trouble superinduced by overstudy Edward F. Grunwald, seventeen years old, of No. 45 Congress street, Jersey City, died on Wednesday morning. In January of last year he graduated from Public School No. 28 and obtained a position in a mercantile house in this city. It was his ambition to become a lawyer, and he purchased law books and studied far into the night. His health began to fail, and although his parents reasoned with him, he declined to stop studying. Last week he was too ill to go to work, and on Monday he was taken to a hospital. The family physician diagnosed Edward's illness as brain fever, brought on by overstudy.

DELAWARE JURIST ATTACKS PASTOR TOWARD MEXICO

Chief Judge Lore Criticizes the Rev. Weather Bureau Reports Tropical Storm in Centre of Gulf of Mexico.

Mr. Elwood for "Lynch-ing" Sermon.

PREACHER AFTER 'NOTORIETY' EAST COAST IS NOW SAFE

Mob Rule, He Says, Brutalizes Man, Destroys Free Government and Increases Crime.

CHAUTAUGUA, N. Y., Friday.—Chief Judge Lore, of Delaware, in an address to-day on "The Relation of Law to the Manifestation of the Mob Spirit" before the anti-lynching conference, commented on the recent burning to death of the negro George White in Delaware, and severely criticized the Rev. R. A. Elwood, of Wilmington, Del., for his so-called "lynching" sermon. In speaking of support of law and order by the pulpit generally, Judge Lore said in reference to the White case:

"Dr. Bishop, the father of the victim, detailing the facts of the case, and concluding these words: 'Our cup of bitterness is full, and we ask you to join us in our appeal to all citizens of our Commonwealth to refrain from violence.'"

This sentiment met the common approval of the audience, and the speaker, in his own words, said: "The next night the mob took the advice of Dr. Bishop, and the result was the lynching of George White. The mob, in the opinion of the speaker, is a large crowd of infuriated men, and vulgarly exhibited and constant in the blood of the victim and the cheers of his auditors."

The next night the mob took the advice of Dr. Bishop, and the result was the lynching of George White. The mob, in the opinion of the speaker, is a large crowd of infuriated men, and vulgarly exhibited and constant in the blood of the victim and the cheers of his auditors."

The State Department to-day received this cablegram from the United States Consul at Kingston, Jamaica: "Port Antonio greatly damaged by hurricane. Many deaths and serious injuries are constantly reported to the consulate."

The department also received this cablegram from John F. Jewell, the American Consul at Port de France, Martinique: "Cane, cocoa and coffee crops total loss. Fruits and vegetables positively destroyed. Every town and village injured. Thousands of houses down. Deaths few. Commotion of the sea, a great many small boats, galvanized roofing will find ready sale."

After discussing the origin of mob law Judge Lore gave these as the effects of mob rule: "The remedy for the prevalent mob spirit is, first, it increases crime, second, it increases crime, third, it
